

2024 CLASSICAL SUMMER SCHOOL AAR SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships will be awarded by the American Academy in Rome upon recommendation of the Classical Summer School Director and the selection committee; they do not require a separate application. Those wishing to be considered for a scholarship must indicate this on their application forms.

The following AAR scholarships are available:

Imperatrix SPQR Helen Aurora Gulamerian Scholarship

For applicants with financial need who study, work, or teach in disciplines connected to the ancient Mediterranean.

James M. Collier Scholarship

Applicants must be a resident of, teach in, or attend school in the states of Oregon, Michigan, and/or Alabama.

Applicants must be middle school, high school, or two-year college teachers, a significant component of whose teaching involves Latin, ancient Greek, or the ancient Mediterranean. Graduate students of languages, literature, history, art, or archaeology of the ancient Mediterranean are also eligible. Preference will be given to those qualified applicants who have not yet studied in Italy and who present a coherent plan for presenting the material learned in the course in their teaching.

Mary A. Sollmann Scholarship

Applicants must be graduate students (or mature undergraduate students) working in the languages, literature, history, art, or archaeology of the ancient Mediterranean. Middle school, high school, and two-year college teachers, a significant component of whose teaching involves Latin, ancient Greek, or the ancient Mediterranean, are also eligible. Preference will be given to those qualified applicants who have not studied in Italy, and to those applicants enrolled at colleges and universities that are Member Institutions of the American Academy in Rome. (Please see the Academy's website for a current list.)

Norma Goldman Scholarship

Applicants must be graduate students or middle school, high school, or two-year college teachers, a significant component of whose teaching involves Latin, ancient Greek, or the ancient Mediterranean. Preference will be given to those qualified applicants who have not yet studied in Italy and who present a coherent plan for presenting the material learned in the course in their teaching.

Captain William Edward McGinn, Squad 18 FDNY Scholarship

Applicants must be graduate students.

This award was established in memory of "Bill" McGinn, who lost his life responding to the attacks on the World Trade Center in New York City on September 11, 2001. The endowment for this award comes through the generosity of the McGinn family and the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies. As a condition of the award, recipients of this scholarship are required to procure lodging at the ICCS facility while participating in the Classical Summer School.
